Welcome to Las Alcobas, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Napa Valley, a one-of-a-kind resort nestled in St. Helena, California. Occupying a stately, Georgian-style farmhouse originally constructed in 1907 and situated adjacent to the storied Beringer vineyards, our hotel offers guests a curated travel experience in the heart of California's Wine Country.

Elegantly designed using luxurious natural materials and a soothing, neutral palette, our historic resort boasts 68 rooms and suites, many of which feature a beautiful outdoor terrace and vineyard views. Guestrooms are spectacularly appointed with Rivolta linens, oversize bathrooms and custom-designed furniture. Enjoy a revitalizing treatment in atrio, our signature spa, savor world-class dining at Acacia House by Chris Cosentino, or celebrate a special occasion in one of our intimate event spaces. At Las Alcobas, every detail has been perfected, with exceptional service to match. This is the second property for the Las Alcobas brand following the award-winning flagship hotel located in Mexico City.

refining the art of wellness

The meaning of Atrio is “Atrium in Spanish, which is the focal point of the relaxation area in the spa.

The serenity of the surrounding landscape is emulated at the 3,500 square foot Atrio spa, a wellness center where inspired treatments include ancient healing, artisanal handmade products, and an apothecary-style aromatherapy blending bar. Our blending system was designed by a world-renowned clinical aromatherapist, teacher, author and herbologist and is offered as part of all massage experiences. The thoughtfully curated treatment menu consists of traditional massage and mind techniques from across the world, many dating back over 2,000 years old. Signature treatments incorporate organic and locally sourced products and ingredients to highlight the best that Napa has to offer. Atrio is proud to offer Naturopathic products, natural botanical skincare products inspired by nature and drawing from traditional healing practices.

ACACIA HOUSE BY CHRIS COSENTINO

refining the art of gastronomy

Tempt your palate with the unique, seasonally-driven offerings at Acacia House. Situated in the heart of Napa Valley in the town of St. Helena, our award-winning restaurant offers epicures an unforgettable culinary experience. Our local, sustainable menu reflects the bounty of Napa Valley; enjoy exquisite wine pairings for an unforgettable fine dining affair.

Raised on a unique culinary blend of homemade pastas, locally caught Atlantic seafood and that old fashioned Yankee fare, Chris Cosentino's Rhode Island upbringing inspired his creativity in the kitchen from a very young age. Now, across the continent, Cosentino is creating his own traditions. Cosentino gain notoriety at Incanto in 2002 where his innovative Italian cooking drew critical acclaim. Internationally regarded as an expert in whole animal cookery, Cosentino opened Cockscomb in 2014, showcasing a range of sustainable meat cuts and dishes inspired by the city's culinary history. Cosentino has appeared on Food Network's "Next Iron Chef America," "Chefs vs. City," and BRAVO's "Top Chef Masters."
